

STOKE WOOD SHORT EASY WALK

Distance: 0.7 miles (1.1km)

Points of Interest: Stoke Wood is an ancient woodland at least 400 years old. It is now owned and managed by the Woodland Trust. In spring many woodland plants flower including bluebell, dog's mercury and wood spurge.

- 1 This large Corsican pine is one of many species of trees growing in the wood.

HOW TO GET THERE

Road

Download free map at www.streetmap.co.uk – click on “click here for the old site” enter grid ref SP555280 as a Landranger and click “search”.
Signed ‘Stoke Wood’ 250m west off B4100, 3¼ miles (6km) north of Bicester.

ACCESSIBILITY INFORMATION

Maximum slope of paths: 1:15

Maximum cross slope on paths: All level

Minimum width of paths: 1m

Path surface: Hard and smooth with some stones up to 25mm.
Can be muddy after wet weather.

ROUTE DESCRIPTION

START from entrance to path in car park. Turn left up slope next to wood.

- A Continue straight ahead where green and red waymarked routes leave to right
- B Turn right into wood. Continue to crossing of paths at C
- C Turn right. After 90m the path descends to the junction at D
- D Turn right. Follow tarmac path. After gate or narrow gap turn right to car park and FINISH.

