Community Learning Disability Teams in Oxfordshire

Specialist multidisciplinary teams offering assessment and high quality healthcare services

Enabling people with a learning disability to live as independently as possible.

The Community Learning Disability Teams are a group of social and health care professionals who work with adults who have a learning disability and their families/carers.

What support do we provide?

The teams work with individuals and their support networks on a referral basis. We offer flexible and personalised services which could include:

- Full health needs assessments
- Full social needs assessments and facilitation of individualised budgets
- Care planning, treatment and review
- Care management (housing, support, day services)
- Health promotion (e.g. good health groups)
- Supporting families and carers
- Support with mental health issues
- Teaching and training direct care staff
- Facilitating use of community and main stream health services
- Working with people with behaviour that challenges others

Who provides the support?

We work as a fully integrated multi-disciplinary team which is made up of highly trained clinical and social care professionals including:

Care Managers	Occupational Therapists
Community Nurses	Physiotherapists
Dieticians	Social Workers
Psychologists	Psychiatrists
Speech and Language Therapists	Support Workers

What can we do for you?

We will enable you to take control of your life

- We will ensure that you are safe
- We will challenge inequality and lack of opportunity for people with a learning disability
- We will work at the heart of our communities
- We will provide and support others in offering personalised, flexible and innovative support
